In my free time, I like hanging out with my friend. We go out to eat, go to the cinema, go shopping or go to the concert music and so on. In the future, I want to be an auditor because it helps to build a solid ground about accounting, finance and improve my soft skill.

22. Favorite book in my country

From my perspective, fiction in Vietnam is the most common kind of books. From teenagers to older people, they can choose the novels that are suitable for reading. In addition to novels, there are some genres of books like comics that are popular with children and even some adults or self-help books.

23. What are you looking for in your new house?

Today, I want to talk about my dream house. My house will have three floors. The first floor will have a living room and a kitchen. The living room which I put a sofa and a large television to my family will watch TV together in the evening. My bedroom which I paint blue because it's my favorite color. I will raise vegetables and flowers in the garden. I hope it will be real in the future.

24. Why are you learning E?

As you know, nowadays English is a popular language in the world. Therefore, I need to improve my English because of two main reasons. Firstly, I want to get a better job in the future. When I have an English certificate, I can apply to the company with a high salary.

Secondly, I want to travel around the world and have a foreign husband.

With the reasons I have mentioned above, I believe that English is very important for me.

25. Your job

Now, I'm an auditor. I work at Deloitte. My main responsibility is to communicate with the customer to obtain the documentation, audit evidence. Then, I and members of my team discuss together to expose the conclusion about the financial statement whether disclose true and fairly. I love my job very much because it helps me to improve my value every day.

26. Tell me the best way to travel around your country?

I'd say that the best way to travel in Vietnam is to go by motorbikes because it is really convenient. The buses are a bit cheaper, but I don't think that is such a comfortable way to travel. Also, there is usually traffic congestion at rush hours, especially in big cities like Hanoi or HCM City. Therefore, if you go by bus, you may be stuck on the streets for hours. So then, motorbikes are really the best option, and of course, they give you the most freedom when you are traveling.

27. A typical day like?

I usually wake up early every morning. I eat breakfast and then I go to school at 7 a.m. I have the class from 7 a.m to 11 a.m. In the afternoon, I do my homework and play badminton with my father. In the evening, I sometimes hangout with my friend....

28. What is the food like in your country?

There are many traditional and delicious foods in Vietnam but I think the most famous food is Pho. It has become the must-try dish on VN for any visitors. It's tasty, cheap and available at all hours. The specialty of the food is the broth. It is made by stewing the bones of cows and pigs for a long time in a large pot. I love Pho very much so I can eat every day.

29. Your favorite place?

There are a lot of places I like but my favorite place is Nha Trang. I think it is the most beautiful city in Viet Nam with a beautiful beach. I love to be there for a long time as I can rest softly and I have a good time to play sea sports and eat seafood. Nha Trang is a great place to make new inspiration and relax.

30. When do you feel stressed?

Communication with foreigners is the thing that I find most stressful. Because I do not have good use of English to speak fluently and Lack of vocabulary & confidence. I understand fully my job's requirement of English Fluency, I remind myself of learning to spend more time looking for some interactive & visually engaging. Hopefully, in the next few months, I will no longer get stressed in that situation.

31. What are you wearing today?

Well, I am not really the fashionable type. I prefer casual clothes – simple and comfortable. Therefore, today I am in a pair of jeans and a white T-shirt.
